The Grundy County Fair Board is proud to announce our capital campaign projects in the works for the upcoming years. With your help, we can make these dreams come true. The projects listed below are our main focus in the coming years to make this a better fair for you and our community. These projects will be utilized all year round for multiple events and not only the week of the Grundy County Fair.

Our most recently completed capital campaign projects include: The Grandstands & The Pavilion.

Ask a fair board member for more information on future capital campaign projects listed below:

1. New Sheep/Goat Barn - Completed by 2027 fair
2. New Shelter/Bath House
3. Covered Horse Arena/Show Barn
4. Convention Center

What does a Grundy County Fair Donation get you?

- Lasting local impact: support farmers, youth programs such as 4H, FFA & ag education for decades.
- We are a 501C3, therefore all donations can be deducted.
- Attendance is increasing an average of 10% year over year, thousands of eyes on your name.
- Economic impact: drawing more people to town, increased local business.
- Improved animal welfare benefiting the animals and the exhibitors.
